EXPERIENCE

WEB DEVELOPER (CONTRACT)

YAMAHA MOTOR CORPORATION, USA
KENNESAW, GA

MARCH 2026 -
JULY 2026

- Built customer-facing features on a headless commerce platform (Next.js + Optimizely CMS), including an enhancement surfacing accessory installation instructions via the Oracle Knowledge (OKA) API – reused existing Owner's Manuals infrastructure to ship faster and avoid duplicate work.
- Implemented GA4 and Google Tag Manager across customer-facing pages, standing up event tracking and conversion measurement that gave the team visibility into user behaviors it previously lacked.
- Built Looker Studio dashboards translating raw analytics into stakeholder-ready insight, tying front-end changes to business outcomes.
- Diagnosed and shipped a production hotfix on an ambiguous cross-stack issue, isolating it to the front end and restoring the site's user purchase/checkout flow.

Technologies: Next.js, TypeScript, Optimizely CMS, GA4, Google Tag Manager, Looker Studio, Oracle Knowledge API, REST

INTERFACE ENGINEER

SOLTECH - ATLANTA, GA

JULY 2021 -
JUNE 2025

- Built and optimized responsive React/Next.js applications used by thousands of users, improving load times and usability across multiple client platforms.
- Improved Soltech's flagship site performance and searchability and reduced maintenance burden by implementing best practices.
- Partnered with cross-functional teams—including design, marketing, and backend—to deliver performant, maintainable code that saved in development time.
- Implemented third-party APIs and reusable components that standardized design patterns and accelerated new project launches.

Technologies: React, Next.js, TypeScript, Vue.js, Node, REST APIs, Docker, AWS, CI/CD
